Lockington Calendar

Thank you to everyone who responded to our request for photographs for a village calendar. We had an amazing 97 entries. This of course made choosing the ones to be included very difficult. However, the decision has been made. The finished calendars should hopefully be printed and on sale from the beginning of October in the village hall.

Mary Greenheld

Mary was born in Scorbrough and moved here aged seven to Keeper's Cottage in Dead Lane when her father became Game Keeper for Lord Hotham. After training in office work she became first a Clerical Assistant at our school and was soon promoted to be the highly regarded and very efficient School Secretary, a post she held for 30 years. Dealing with money, however, was her bugbear.

"High finance is not my scene, or an accountant I'd have been. Computers, budgets - oh what next? No wonder I am getting vexed."

In addition she often helped out in the school kitchen where meals were prepared and served on the premises and even taught the children in classes where her war-time experiences kept them entranced.

As a devout Christian she was a regular attendee at Saint Mary's Church and served on the Parochial Church Council for many years. She was not afraid to air her views and also correct those who were in error, including a visiting distinguished cleric on one occasion. A number of her many poems were converted into hymns:- at least 12 of them. A printed collection of them was presented to Archbishop Sentamu who embraced her with a giant bear hug as a thank you.

Never speaking ill of anyone, she was much loved and hugely respected by all who knew her.

It will be a long time before the village gets to know another like her. May she rest in peace with her beloved Eric in our churchyard.

A few thoughts about Mary by Sam Walton

Mary Greenheld, or "Little Mary" as we referred to her, a wonderful mother and grandmother, a very talented lady with a vast knowledge about Lockington and the surrounding area, will be sadly missed. We are lucky in many respects to have known her for so long. She was always interested in the Olympics and right up to her last days was reading about Lottie Fry from Aike, who competed in this year's horse events, whose family she had known from her younger days.

Amongst the many memories a lot of us will have are the absolutely superb hymns she wrote and which we often sing in Church. Many times at a committee meeting where things were being discussed, someone would perhaps comment on something which happened and suggest the outcome was this or that. Mary would then quietly tell us that in fact it was something else! Her knowledge of our village was quite extraordinary.

Our thoughts are with her family, and may she rest in peace.

Thank You

The family is extremely grateful for all the cards and condolences and the high attendance at the church, which showed how loved and respected Mary was. Lockington has an amazing community and without it Mary's life would not have been as enjoyable and we would not have coped as well. Thank you.

George and Helen Greenheld. Wendy and Mike Allison.

LOCKINGTON PARISH COUNCIL

Lockington Village Green Meeting Reminder

The Parish Council wishes to update the Parish on progress with the Village Green.

The Parish of Lockington is now the legal owner of the Village Green, ensuring a green space at the centre of the village for perpetuity. A permanent access into the green has been created and is now complete, however, for safety reasons the gates remain locked shut until the green is made safe and developed.

The results of the survey taken in 2020 and an Indicative Plan was published in Issue 147 of the Lockington Gazette. The forward plan is to discuss this at an open meeting on Tuesday 15th of October 2024 at 7pm in the Village Hall.
